FLEXIBLE TECHNOLOGY TO DELIVER ONLINE BROKERAGE SERVICES
TO YOUR CLIENTS

Traditional business models are evolving and the need to provide the convenience that investors demand is more important than ever. At the core of Pershing's investor access solutions, NetExchange Client® enables your firm to offer your clients an online brokerage platform to access account information, place trades, and get quotes, news, and research to help them manage their finances.

A Platform for Success

Boost your competitive position, enhance your service approach by complementing the value of personal investment advice, and give your clients a powerful solution for online investing.

Designed to meet your firm's needs, NetExchange Client is available in four distinct versions:

Noncustom Solutions

- > NetExchange Client (www.netxclient.com) is a comprehensive, turnkey, noncustom web site that enables your firm to offer account information, trading, quotes, news, and research.
- > NetExchange Client View® (www.netxview.com) is a noncustom web site that offers access to account information and delayed quotes, without the ability to place trades online.

Custom Solutions

- > NetExchange Client Custom® allows your firm to completely customize the platform to meet your specific requirements. You can include your corporate branding, design the navigation style, and select from premium news and research offerings. In addition, you can integrate your existing online offerings, determine the financial information you wish to display, and include a customer service section offering your clients the ability to apply online for new accounts, send e-mail to your firm, and more.
- > NetExchange Client Select® (www.netxselect.com) represents an offering between the full custom solution and the noncustom platforms. NetExchange Client Select enables your firm to add your corporate branding, create a limited number of custom pages, and select the functionality and content that you would like to display.

The Power of Online Investing

NetExchange Client is the cornerstone for providing online investment services to your clients. The many benefits include:

- > Efficiency. NetExchange Client can increase your firm's productivity because it enables your investment professionals to devote more time to gathering assets and building their business.
- > Customization. Your firm can customize the web site to complement your corporate image and include your firm's logo, marketing materials, and more.
- > Competitiveness. NetExchange Client helps your firm to remain competitive in today's marketplace. As more tools and technologies become available over the Internet, NetExchange Client will be enhanced so your firm can offer the most competitive and advanced functionality in the industry.
- > Client Service. You can empower your clients with a powerful resource for building and maintaining their financial portfolios. This convenient service is at your clients' fingertips whenever and wherever they need it.

Trading and Portfolio Management

NetExchange Client is a powerful tool to help your clients manage their investments online. Your clients can enter orders seven days a week and enjoy the flexibility of investing whenever they want. In addition, clients can review their orders before submitting them and will receive an online acknowledgement indicating that the order was received. NetExchange Client also provides timely information to help your clients manage their portfolios. Day and night, your clients can access their balances, portfolio holdings, account activity, order status, cost-basis information, projected cash flow, brokerage account statements, trade confirmations, and more. For added convenience, your clients can download their account information into Microsoft® Money, as well as Quicken® and TurboTax® products from Intuit® using Open Financial Exchange (OFX) technology.
